TEXAS CONFERENCE

1919

Think about this—

IF every Methodist preacher ordered all of his books from his own Publishing House, the Superannuates and Widows and Orphans of deceased preachers would receive more than three times as much revenue from the profits of the House as they do now. All the profits of the House are used for this purpose.

FOURTH DAY—MEMORIAL SESSION

The Conference met in memorial session Sunday afternoon at 3 p. m., G. W. Riley in the chair, by appointment of the Bishop. The hymn, "How Firm a Foundation" was sung and J. T. Smith led in prayer. I. Alexander, J. S. Hendrick, L. B. Saxon, Albert Little, and A. Methvin, members of this conference, had passed away, and O. B. Mortensen and S. E. Kornegay, preachers on trial had also died. Mrs. Calvin H. Brooks and Mrs. J. D. Burke, wives of C. H. Brooks and J. D. Burke, respectively, had also been called away, and Mrs. C. T. Cummings, wife of our brother C. T. Cummings, had also ascended during the year.

O. T. Hotchkiss read the memoir of Sister Cummings; W. R. Crawford that of Sister J. D. Burke; Frank Platt that of A. Methvin; J. W. Johnson that of Albert Little; J. T. Smith read the memoir of I. Alexander; while J. E. Morgan read that of O. B. Mortenson and G. W. Riley that of S. E. Kornegay. C. A. Tower read a sketch of the life of L. B. Saxon; and O. T. Hotchkiss read the memoir of Mrs. C. H. Brooks.

The death of J. S. Hendricks, who died soon after the last conference had escaped the notice of the Committee on Memoirs, but a suitable sketch will be prepared for our Journal.

A number of the brethren spoke tenderly of the memory of these departed saints, and on motion of O. T. Hotchkiss, the memoirs were adopted as the report of the committee on memoirs, answering question 77: What preachers have died during the year?

T. S. Garrison presented his report as Treasurer of the Joint Board of Finance, and it was ordered to record.

The minutes of last night's session and this session were read and approved.

After various announcements the conference adjourned, the benediction being pronounced by O. T. Hotchkiss.

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

Your Board has considered carefully and prayerfully all the interests that have come before it and greatly rejoices in the progress that has been made.

Southern Methodist University.

Southern Methodist University has the largest student body ever enrolled in a Southern Methodist College or University, having in attendance more than nine hundred students at present, and would have several hundred more but for a lack of boarding facilities.

We recommend that K. E. Barnhart, W. E. Bard and Joe M. Connally be appointed students and that Dr. James Kilgore and Rev. H. M. Whaling, Jr., be appointed Professors in Southern Methodist University, and L. J. Waggoner be appointed a student to Union Theological Seminary.

The Theological Department of Southern Methodist University.

The new era into which we are now entering has greatly increased the demands made upon our ministry. The Theological Department of Southern Methodist University is making commendable and heroic efforts to meet the greatly increasing demands. They have a fine student body and the opportunity and the efforts of the faculty challenge our highest admiration. We urge our pastors and laymen to strengthen their hands by raising scholarships of $200.00, each, that they be given to poor and deserving students.

Summer Assembly of Southern Methodist University.

The Southern Methodist University has been quick to recognize the need for a summer assembly where Sunday School Teachers, Christian Workers and Pastors may further be prepared for the work of the Church. The attendance last summer exceeded the expectations of its founders and they confidently expect greatly increased attendance next year. We urge pastors and laymen to attend.

SOUTHWESTERN UNIVERSITY.

Southwestern University, the oldest Methodist School in Texas, was never in a more prosperous condition. Its halls and class-rooms are crowded, there being seventy more girls in the boarding halls than last year. The attendance is about four hundred at present, all the University can well provide for. There is every reason to expect Southwestern University to meet an imperative need in our educational work in Texas.

TEXAS WOMAN'S COLLEGE.

Texes Woman's College has the largest enrollment in its history and is doing a work that commends it to the heartiest support of this Conference. We recommend that the following be elected Trustees of Texas Woman's College: H. B. Goodman of Galveston for a period of four years; Rev. E. W. Potter for a period of three years, and Mrs. J. W. Tottenham of Brenham for a period of two years and Rev. S. W. Thomas for a period of one year.

---

ALEXANDER COLLEGE.

The Alexander College is justifying its right to live and its claims for support. We commend the work being done by the President and his faculty.

THE WESLEY BIBLE CHAIR.

Of the four thousand students of the University of Texas, more than twelve hundred are Methodists. The Church has established a Bible Chair there to be known as the Wesley Bible Chair. Rev. Umphrey Lee of the Central Texas Conference is in charge of the work and begins most encouragingly. We recommend that Judge W. L. Dean of Huntsville and Rev. R. W. Adams be elected, both Commissioners and Trustees.

We recommend that Rev. R. W. Adams be appointed Conference Secretary of Education and that he be sent to the Educational Commission which meets early next spring.

GENERAL BOARD OF EDUCATION.

We call attention to the great Educational Campaign projected by the General Board of Education and ordered by the General Conference which is to begin during the month of May, 1920, and culminate with the great drive in May, 1921. Our educational institutions are suffering from lack of financial support and we urge the most enthusiastic support of our pastors and laymen.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MISSIONS.

Your Board of Missions ask you to rejoice with it in the signal success which has attended our missionary activities this year, not only in our own conference, but throughout the church.

Not only has the Centenary Financial Drive been gloriously consummated, but the report on the missionary assessments have been gratifying indeed.

We desire most earnestly to exhort the pastors in our various charges to heartily accept the responsibility of pushing the collection of money on the Centenary subscriptions.

Conference Missionary Secretary, J. E. Morgan, deserves the gratitude of this Conference for untinted and efficient service. He expresses a desire to retire from this office. We recommend that D. H. Hotchkiss be appointed by Bishop Ainsworth as Conference Missionary Secretary, to continue the Centenary and missionary work of the Conference.

The Board and the Conference have heard with pleasure and profit, the addresses and suggestions of Drs. J. J. Stowe and R. L. Russell.

We are glad to note that President W. B. Bizzell of Texas Agricultural and Mechanical College, has requested that this Board assist in providing special religious ministration to the college community and student body of that institution. We also note that First Church, Bryan, Texas, has paid into your Board a special of $500.00 to help make possible the response to this request. In accordance herewith, we recommend that E. H. McKenzie be appointed by Bishop Ainsworth as Junior Preacher at First Church, Bryan.

An opportunity presents itself to articulate our work with Rice Institute at Houston, Texas, through the student volunteer band. We thankfully grasp that opportunity.

We recommend W. G. Harbin, R. J. Smith, E. C. Escoe, H. S. Allkire and O. F. Zimmerman as Conference Evangelists, and J. W. Bridges and G. C. Cravy as District Evangelists. We recommend to the General Committee on Evangelism, W. G. Harbin for the election of General Evangelist.

Your Board rejoices in that it is able to appropriate in accordance with each and every request made by the presiding elders.

SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD.

In order to carry out the plan of the General Sunday School Board in our Conference, we find it imperative that a Conference Sunday School Field Secretary be put into the field at once. After consideration, we have decided to ask the Conference to approve the appointment of Reverend I. F. Betts to this office.

During the past year the activities of your Board have been largely devoted to the Centenary. About two-thirds of the Sunday Schools in the Conference made the Centenary pledge, paying each month nearly $3,000.00 for Missions. We earnestly urge that presiding elders and pastors pledge the remaining schools.

Our General Board has planned a Church-wide movement in Sunday School evangelism. We hope that we may have a co-operation that will be as wide as our Conference and as deep as our love for the Master.

We note with pleasure the increasing educational value of our Sunday School literature. We especially recommend the circulation of The Church School. Beginning with January 1, 1920, in our various lesson helps, the authorized version of the Scripture text will be printed in a column parallel with the American Revised Version.

We urge that a standard of excellence be secured for and displayed in our schools; and that pastors and superintendents develop the work of the school to make it standard.

Our General Sunday School Board has planned a Church Wide Membership Campaign. Instructions and all supplies for conducting this campaign will be furnished free of charge to any Sunday school; and your Conference Board will endeavor, this year, to enlist all in the Texas Conference in a membership campaign.

The General Conference has a plan of organization whereby the Sunday school work of the General Board, the Annual Conference, the district and local church is provided as follows: Elementary, Intermediate-Senior, Young Peoples' and Adult, Teacher Training, Missionary Education, and Rural Work, with a Superintendent.

Provision has been made by the General Conference for a corresponding organization in the district with a superintendent in charge of each department, the same to apply to Annual Conference.

In addition there shall be a District Secretary who is the executive officer in the district. The presiding elder is ex-officio chairman of the district organization.

A Conference Field Secretary devoting all his time to the work is of vital importance in keeping this connectional machinery in operation and in forming a connecting link with the General Board, which does its work through the departments. A Corresponding Secretary has direct oversight of the Conference Field Secretaries.

The discipline provides that a District Institute shall be held in each district, and the Conference Board strongly urges a Standard Training School within the bounds of the Conference.

In order that each district may be furnished with funds whereby to finance the District Organization, your Conference Board proposes to return to each district one-half of the Conference Board's share of the Sunday school funds collected in the district, to be spent in promoting the Sunday school work in the district, under the direction of the Presiding Elder and the Executive Committee of your Sunday School Board.

Your Board has elected the following Conference Departmental Superintendents: Field Work, V. A. Godbey; Elementary Work, Mrs. V. A. Godbey; Intermediate-Senior, Miss Tennie Mae Bass; Young People's and Adult, H. V. Watts; Teacher Training, R. E. Ledbetter; Missionary Education, E. G. Cooke; Rural Work, W. G. Harbin.

CHRISTIAN LITERATURE.

The circulation of Christian literature is one of the great agencies of civilization and moral righteousness. No Methodist can be an intelligent one about his church without the church organ. In Texas we have one of the best Christian Advocates in our connection. It is being ably edited and is full each week with those things that will make the membership of our church both intelligent and faithful.

We, therefore, recommend that the first week in December, or as near thereto as possible, be Advocate week in the Texas Conference to increase its circulation.

We also recommend that the sum of $93.00 be assessed against the Conference to supplement the salary of the editor.

The Nashville Advocate our general organ is one of the great religious journals of the country. We therefore, recommend that our preachers, and as far as possible, the official members of our church subscribe for our great organ.

Our publishing interest should be the only book concern patronized by our people. From our own publishing house, one may secure any work of religious or literary nature. We, therefore, ask our people to patronize our publishing house.

Our Sunday schools should use no other literature than that edited and published by our church. We, therefore, ask our people that they at once subscribe for literature published by our own church.

Respectfully submitted,

H. T. PERRITTE, President.

BIBLE BOARD.

The matter of chief interest in the report of the American Bible Society is that of providing soldiers and sailors with scriptures during the European war. A total of four and one-half million copies were furnished America's fighting men and a total of two and one-half million were furnished European soldiers, making a grand total of seven million volumes. A large portion of the Khaki Testaments provided our own men were donated out right. We commend in highest terms this special work of the Society, meeting an emergency promptly and efficiently which could not have been accomplished through any other agency. The men at the front read and appreciated the Book and it nerved them for battle. There was scarcely a soldier killed in battle who was not found either with a Book in his pocket or grasped in his hand.

The pressing demand just now is to provide scriptures for the reconstruction period. War-torn nations are calling for Bibles. Twenty thousand Testaments are now on their way to France to assist in the establishment of Protestant Churches there, and scriptures for war-ridden countries are being prepared.

We call attention to Universal Bible Sunday which this year is November 30th. If that date is not suitable, pastors may select another day. A pamphlet helpful in preparing a program on the Bible may be had from Reverend J. J. Morgan, our Agency Secretary at Dallas. We urge that every pastor take advantage of this occasion to lift up the blessed Book before his people and exhort them to family religion. The home is a good place to begin the great revival for which we are praying. No collection is asked. As never before, the American people need to study the Word of God and know the relation of a man to his neighbor, to his Government and to his Creator.

Respectfully submitted,

R. E. BEAIRD, Secretary.

D. W. GARDENER, Chairman.

REPORT OF EPWORTH LEAGUE BOARD.

During the year 1919 the Epworth League has enjoyed a substantial increase in the amount of money collected. We recommend the League for its part in the Great Centenary work and pray that it may do even greater things in the ensuing year.

In accordance with the request of the General Secretary of the Epworth League we recommend that we send the President of the Board to the Annual Meeting of the Conference Presidents to be held in Nashville, Tenn., January 28-29, next.

We urge the pastors to organize Epworth Leagues wherever there is a sufficient number of young people. Neglect in this misses an opportunity for the spiritual enrichment of the young life and also fails to provide a mighty force in evangelism.

Also do we urge the observance of Anniversary Day, Second Sunday in May in accordance with Paragraph 384 in the Discipline.

It is recommended that the Presiding Elders be respectfully requested to give adequate place to the Epworth League on their programs either at their Missionary Institutes or the District Conferences. The President of the Board will gladly furnish a representative for each occasion. All members of the Epworth League Board are ever ready to assist wherever their efforts are desired.

A. A. WAGNON, President,
J. C. MARSHALL, Secretary.

REPORT OF TEMPERANCE AND SOCIAL SERVICE BOARD.

The mission of the church is to bring the world to Christ. This means more than getting people to profess conversion, it also means nurturing of them to the fullness of the Christ life.

The long fight for temperance has reached the point that not only the bravest dreamed possible a few years ago. We have prohibition written into the Constitution of State and Nation. In this America leads the world. The prohibition victory is largely a victory of the Church.

We rejoice to see that the Anti-Saloon League has mapped out a broad program for enforcing the prohibition laws. We approve the sane and effective methods it proposes; that of developing public sentiment to where it will demand adequate enforcement of law and of educating the youth as to the evils of alcohol and of teaching the foreigners the good of prohibition.

The second part of this Board's business is to call to service. We believe in a Church that is good and good for something. The great closing scene of human history is revealed to teach the importance of social service.

The Judge of all the earth shall say to them on the right, "I was hungry and ye gave me meat, thirsty and ye gave me drink, naked and ye clothed me, sick and in prison and ye ministered unto me. In as much as ye did it unto one of the least of these, ye did it unto me."

Social service is no modern movement as far as Methodism is concerned. It was incorporated in the general rules of the United Societies and was adopted as a part of our constitutional law.

True Methodism is not only Christianity in earnest, it is Christianity applied; not merely humanitarianism, but Christlike activity, labor of love. Our doctrines and methods are still vital, adaptable to existing conditions. We are studying new facts by the light of old truths. We are not only ready to heal sickness by building hospitals, but also to hinder sickness by the work of sanitation in every community, urban and rural. We enter our protest against the prostitution of our public school houses into common dance halls.

We believe the industrial and social problems of the day can be solved only by the church. The common question in many mouths and more minds is, "What are we going to do with certain classes of citizenry, which evidently proves disturbing elements in the land." Some say, "Oppose all industrial unions, break up the brotherhoods of the whites, then disfranchise or colonize the blacks." The churches question is not what are we going to do with these classes but what are we going to do for them. They ask for a square deal. We believe that the only problem before the world is the sin problem. The church alone can solve that problem and teach men the art of living together. We have the best machinery in the world for this extension of the Kingdom. We must have power for work.

G. W. RILEY, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE ORPHANAGE COMMITTEE.

We, your committee on Orphanage, beg to submit the following report:

Our pastors are reminded that we have no assessment on our Conference for our Orphanage. The presiding elders are urged to invite the pastors' attention to the Orphanage, urging them to take a liberal collection or offering for this purpose in the near future. It is suggested that each pastor avail himself of the privilege of taking up a free-will Christmas offering for the Orphanage.

We recommend the immediate erection of a suitable heating plant and laundry for the Orphanage. This committee endorses the efforts of the management to erect a training school building, to be known as the Abe Mulkey Memorial Building.

The capacity of the Orphanage should be increased so as to accomodate no less than 300 orphan children.

The individual method of clothing the children is a great help to the Orphanage. We urge its continuation.

We would suggest that each Sunday school, Epworth League, and Missionary Society have some part in caring for our orphans.

Our pastors are urged to give the management, as well as the State Agent, who are working for our Orphanage, access to their people and such further assistance as they may be able to render.

This committee would suggest that all money raised by our pastors for the Orphanage be sent direct to our Conference Treasurer, G. W. Glass.

We recommend the management and pledge our co-operation in the good work being done for the Orphanage.

W. L. CANNAN, President,
D. E. SNELLER, Secretary.

REPORT OF BOARD OF SUPERANNUATE ENDOWMENT FUND, TEXAS CONFERENCE.

We call your attention to the report of our Secretary-Treasurer. Despite the fact that our Commissioner was called in last year, and other claims given the right-of-way, this fund has steadily climbed to nearly $5,000.00 and most of it drawing from 4 to 10 per cent interest. It is a sign of the healthy regard in which our laity hold this fund, and an earnest of the help wherewith the church will help the old and worn-out preachers when the preachers themselves get ready to be helped.

We regret exceedingly that the time seems inopportune for putting an agent in the field this year. Other interests still hold the road, and the cause of the worn-out and penniless preacher must continue its painful policy of patient waiting through yet another year. But it is the earnest hope and prayer of this Board that a perpetual period shall be put to this inconsistent policy by another year, and that the Texas Conference will move forward as one man on its half-a-million-dollar campaign for the superannuates. In the meantime we ask that our leaders shall lend every effort to assist our faithful

Secretary-Treasurer in gathering in the more than $25,000.00 of outstanding subscriptions to this sacred fund.

We ask that Rev. B. R. Bolton be appointed to take the place of H. D. Knickerbocker.

We ask authority be given the Executive Committee of this Board to employ some one to collect the outstanding subscriptions made to this fund and receive donations for said fund.

Respectfully submitted.

W. D. WHITE,

A. A. WAGNON,

Committee.

HOSPITALS.

To the Eightieth Annual Session of the Texas Conference:

MEMOIRS*REV. ISAAC ALEXANDER.

Rev. Isaac Alexander was born at Lebanon, Virginia, July 24, 1832. His father was Irish and his mother English. At an early age, the death of his father left him in care of a mother who was deeply pious and strictly Methodist. Under her tutelage, and under the ministry of Rev. J. R. Bellamy, then of the Holston Conference, when sixteen years of age Bro. Alexander gave his heart to God and joined the Methodist Church. He lived and died in the Church before whose altar he assumed the vows more than seventy years ago.

He began his school days in the old Strawberry Plains High School, spending the last two years of his student life in Emory and Henry College, Virginia. From the latter institution he received his A. B. in 1854 and his A. M. in 1857. Most of his subsequent life was spent in the school room. "I do not regret it", said he, in a personal letter written to us just twenty-one years ago.

Bro. Alexander was licensed to preach at Henderson, Texas, in 1854, the year he left school and came to Texas. Received on trial into the old East Texas Conference at Marshall, in 1855; ordained deacon at Rusk, in 1857, by Bishop Kavanaugh; elder, at Marshall, in 1860, by Bishop Early. For sufficient reasons, he discontinued three times during his long itinerant career, but at no time did he ever belong to any conference other than the East Texas, now the Texas Conference. These periods were 1858-60, 1861-75, 1890-94.

During the period of his active ministry he served the following charges: Starrville Circuit, Gilmer Station, Agent for Soule University, Melrose Circuit, Tyler Station, President Alexander Collegiate Institute, Jacksonville, Palestine and Longview Stations. In the fall of 1908 he took the superannuate relation, which he sustained at the time of his death. During this period he served with credit as Chaplain of A. & M. College.

Bro. Alexander's great work was in connection with the institution which bears his name, and is now located at Jacksonville, Texas. Alexander Institute was first opened at Kilgore, Texas, as a private institution in 1873. In 1875 it was taken over by the East Texas Conference and Bro. Alexander continued as its president until 1890. As a teacher and leader he left his impress on a generation of men and women in the eastern section of the State. These preachers, teachers, lawyers, physicians, business men, farmers, housewives, who came under his influence in early life, could never get beyond that influence. He was also a great preacher. During the long period of his active ministry whenever and wherever he was announced to preach he always had a hearing. This was especially true where he was best known as a preacher and a man.

He was twice married and to these unions three daughters were born. The twilight hours of his long life were spent in Henderson, Texas, where he passed away June 5, 1919. So peaceful was his outward going that even the watchers could not tell the moment he set sail for the heavenly shores. His three daughters, his grandchildren and great grandchildren were near him when the end came. His funeral, by special request, was conducted by Dr. John H. McLean, a lingering member of the old guard and a devoted personal friend. A personal request was also extended Rev. L. B. Elrod, but it was not possible for him to be present. Amidst a great concourse of sorrowing relatives and friends, his weary body was laid to rest in the Henderson Cemetery to await the crowning day. A prince in Israel has fallen. We await the glad reunion with this old hero of the Cross.

REV. ALBERT LITTLE.

Rev. Albert Little was born in North Carolina in 1843. At about 18 years of age he entered the Confederate Army and served four years. At the close of the war he came to Texas and settled in Smith County, where in 1866 he was married to Miss Mary Taylor. He was licensed to preach at Union Springs Camp Ground in 1874. After serving a year or two as supply he was received on trial into the East Texas Conference in 1876, and for twenty-six years he did as faithful work as any among us, and as successful. The following are some of the places he served: Cherokee Circuit, Rusk and Jacksonville; Jacksonville Circuit and Jacksonville Station, Troup and Overton, Palestine; Tyler Circuit; Pine Hill Circuit, Mount Pleasant Station and Orange Station. To some of these places he was returned for a second pastorate. They enjoyed hearing his impassioned sermons. Brother Little's preaching was nearly always good because he was one of the ablest men in prayer and song and exhortation I ever heard and few were the congregations that did not melt under his fervid ministrations. We assisted each other in revival meetings and altogether I have been more in his home than that of any other preacher. For forty-five years my love for him has grown and ripened.

Brother Little was happily married. He and Sister Little were congenial to each other. Theirs was a happy Christian home. Their children, three daughters and two sons, were bright and well favored, and show the fulfillment of the hopes and promises of their youth. Few men in modern times have had such an Elijah-like translation as Brother Little had. On Wednesday night before he had held the prayer meeting in Honey Grove, someone writing me says, "That prayer meeting will long be remembered in our Church. As he sang and prayed it seemed heaven came down and we had a foretaste of the glory world." It was on Sunday following this he was at Pleasant Retreat where he had often held meetings. Surrounded by old friends he loved, he sang and prayed until the atmosphere seemed surcharged with the Holy Ghost, his face lit up with a heavenly glow, when instantly his eyes closed and sinking down into the arms of his friends his triumphant soul mounted upon high.

It is a great privilege and honor to have lived and died as he did. Sister Little, you will miss him, but I imagine you will feel that somehow he is always near you. And some good day you will yourself fall asleep in Jesus, "that blessed sleep from which none ever wake to weep."

REV. ALEXANDER METHVIN.

Rev. Alexander Methvin was born in Gregg County, Texas, December, 1859. Was married to Miss Mattie Lum in 1884. Was admitted on trial into the old East Texas Conference at Orange, December 1893, and served the following charges: Crockett Circuit, 1894-95; Elkhart, 1896-97; West Palestine, 1898-99; Grand Saline, 1900-03; Alvin, 1904-05; League City, 1906; Cedar Bayou 1907; Columbia and Brazoria, 1908-11; Glenflora, 1912. Superannuated at Nacogdoches December, 1913, and moved to Brazoria where he lived an honored veteran of the Cross until February 14, 1919, when he was transferred to the great conference above. The above figures all we have at hand, give us but a few brief facts in the laborious life of our departed brother. Summed up, they are birth, consecration to the ministry and death. For more than a year he suffered as only those affected with cancer can suffer, yet he bore it with Christian fortitude. He was buried from the Methodist Church in Brazoria, in the presence of a host of former parishioners and friends. He leaves a wife, other relatives and friends to mourn his departure. Dear brother, we shall meet again.

REV. L. B. SAXON.

Rev. L. B. Saxon has gone to his long home. He died of pneumonia in his parsonage home at Texarkana, Texas, January 25, 1919. Bro. Saxon was 43 years old. He was converted at Shady Grove Church, Henderson County, Texas, some twenty years ago, and licensed to preach by the Tyler District Conference at Grand Saline, July 4, 1901, J. T. Smith, presiding elder. He was married to Miss Sallie Owens, of Murchison, Texas, in 1900. To them were born three sons. Roy has been in the United States navy nearly two years. He had just returned from Brest, France, when he got the message that his father was dead. Mox and Bob were at home when their father died. These two noble sons are now taking care of their mother until Roy can get a discharge from the service.

Bro. Saxon's first work as supply was Mt. Sylvan, 1904; from there, in 1905, Cushing charge; in 1906, Meredith charge. In 1907 he did supply work in the Central Texas Conference. In the fall of this year he was admitted on trial into the Texas Conference at Houston, December 27, 1907, and was sent to Shelbyville Circuit. He served Tenaha in 1909; Beckville 1910; Rosenberg 1911; Douglasville 1912; Hughes Springs 1913-14; Jewett 1915; Grace, Palestine 1916-18. He was sent to Hardy Memorial, Texarkana, where he died in the beginning of a successful year, for Saxon always succeeded.

Strange are the doings of providence, and we must believe that God buries his workmen and carries on his work. Saxon was a manly man among men. I knew him as a preacher perhaps better than any other man knew him. In him divine evolution did its work. I watched the unfolding of a great character, with fatherly and brotherly care. I met him first in 1905, while he was on the Cushing work. I was his elder. In him I saw a "diamond in the rough," a man seeking the right way, the soul of honor, a friend to the under man. Jeweled with a sparkling intellect, gifted in speech, he achieved wonders. With meager educational advantages he out-stripped most of us. His frequent moves were all his own. Full of energy and a bunch of nerves, he was always under high pressure and at full speed. He did more in one year than most of us will do in two. A faithful soldier of the cross, a man of great faith, he was learning to live well, and he died well before he had reached the meridian of life. His work among us will tell in the ages to come. Hundreds were converted under his ministry, and in the crowning day many will call him blessed. I loved Bale Saxon as I have loved but few men. To his sad wife and three noble sons I will say, God bless you, live as he would have you live and some good day, away out beyond the dark sea, we will see him in the land of eternal day.

REV. SIDNEY EVERETT KORNEGAY.

Rev. Sidney Everett Kornegay was born at Malone, Hill County, Texas, on November 20, 1894, and was killed on the battlefield in France by a bullet fired from a German machine gun on November 1, 1918. He was the son of Marion S. and Carrie Kornegay, who survive him, together with one sister and one brother. He gave his young heart to God in July, 1907, and was received into the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, at Malone by Rev. W. T. Kinslow. He lived a clean, upright, Christian life, to the day of his death. While attending a revival meeting conducted by Rev. J. M. Bond, Sr., in the summer of 1911, he felt an impression that God called him to the work of the ministry, and he immediately began to make preparations to follow this calling. He entered Polytechnic College at Fort Worth in the fall of 1911 and in April, 1912, while a student there, and when he was 17 years of age, he was licensed to preach the gospel by the Fort Worth District Conference, Rev. Jerome Duncan, presiding elder. When Polytechnic was made a woman's college, he matriculated in the Southern Methodist University and pursued his course there until he graduated with great credit on June 10, 1917. During the summer of 1916 he supplied a charge in one of the Oklahoma Conferences, and on Sunday, November 19, 1916, (when he lacked only one day of being 22 years of age), he was ordained local deacon by Bishop J. H. McCoy, at Waxahachie, Texas, the Central Texas Conference being in session at that time. After his graduation in the summer of 1917, he was appointed to supply the Frankston and LaRue charge in the Texas Conference. His work on this charge was very successful. He conducted his own meetings and many souls were led to Christ. The people were all anxious for his return another year, but like a great many of our preachers he felt that he should enlist in some branch of war work. Accordingly, the Bishop appointed him to this position, he having been received on trial in the Texas Conference. He was assigned to Camp Bowie and worked there for several months, until he learned that only men of mature years could go to France with the Y. M. C. A. Deeply desiring to render active service at the front, he resigned his position and enlisted in the United States Marine Corps, at Houston, and was assigned to Co. 95, 6th Regt. He took training at Paris Island and Quantico, and was soon sent over. Not much is known of his experiences after he left the United States. His last letter was dated October 17, 1918, when he wrote that preparations were being made for his company to get into action. Then there was a long period of suspense—nearly two months—when finally the phone rang on Monday night, December 30, and the message was delivered to the anxious loved ones, saying that Everett had fallen in battle.

And thus has ended the life of one of the most promising young preachers of Texas Methodism. He made it the purpose of his life to be of service to his fellow men, and this purpose was accomplished in his life and in his death. In conversation with the writer a short time before he enlisted in the Marines, he said that it was his great ambition to lead his comrades to Christ and he meant to do personal work for the Master among the soldiers. No doubt then there will be many to rise up and call him blessed in the days to come, and no doubt his crown will be set with brilliant diadems, representing the redeemed souls of fallen comrades, as they mingle in happy reunion on the beautiful heavenly hills. We commend those who loved him so tenderly to the great loving Heavenly Father, who alone can give comfort. He knows what it means to give up a Son and have Him slain for a great cause, and His grace is sufficient in a trial like this.

OSCAR B. MORTENSEN.

Oscar B., son of P. F. and Mrs. Laura May Mortensen, was born in Texarkana, Bowie County, Texas, January 12th, 1890, and departed this life August 7th, 1919. He was converted and joined the Hardy Memorial Methodist Church in May, 1911. Soon after his conversion he made it known that he felt a call to preach the gospel and was recommended by the Hardy Memorial Quarterly Conference to the Pittsburg District Conference for license to preach. Soon after he was licensed to preach he entered the Alexander College and spent one year there. The second year he entered the Southwestern University and remained there two years. Then he entered the Southern Methodist University, and remained there three years receiving his A. B. Degree at the close of the 1918 session.

Soon after he was appointed pastor of Anderson Charge, Navasota District, Texas Conference, to fill out the unexpired Conference year of Rev. H. A. Matney and was recommended by the committee of the Navasota District to the Texas Annual Conference for admission on trial. Bishop Ainsworth assigned him to Onalaska. Soon after Conference he was stricken with what was thought to be rheumatism but it proved to be an incurable disease. And though he was given every opportunity that medical science could command his physical strength was gradually giving away to the ravages of the disease.

He was perfectly submissive, not a murmur or word of complaint escaped his lips. He often assured his mother and friends that the Good Shepherd would be with him to support, strengthen and comfort him as he passed through the valley of the shadow of death. His mind was as clear, and as his body grew weaker, his faith in God seemed to grow stronger until the evening of August 7th, he quietly passed to his reward. On August the 8th, his body was carried to the Hardy Memorial Methodist Church where a large company of friends had gathered to pay him their last tribute of respect and love. Rev. J. T. Moore conducted a very impressive funeral service. His body was then laid to rest in Rose Hill Cemetery underneath a bed of beautiful flowers. Thus ended the life of one who promised to be a great blessing to the world and a useful servant in the kingdom of God.

MRS. CALVIN H. BROOKS.

Mrs. Calvin H. Brooks died in the home of her son, Rev. W. H. Brooks, in Cedar Bayou, Texas, April 25, 1919, and was buried in the cemetery at Elgin, Texas which had been her home for many years. Her maiden name was Littitia Worsham and she was born in Montgomery, Texas, March 11, 1839, being over 80 years of age at her death. She was married to Rev. Calvin H. Brooks, in Montgomery, Texas, October 14, 1857, Brother Brooks being at the time pastor at Montgomery. Eight children were born to this union, four of them still living: Rev. W. H. Brooks, Cedar Bayou; Mrs. Mattie E. Moore, Dallas; Mrs. Jessie Viridet, Austin and Miss Nara, Cedar Bayou. There are twenty-three grand-children and six great-grand-children. There were eight grand-children in the recent world war, six in the army and two in the navy. One of her grand-sons, Brooks Carter, has for a number of years been prominent in the United States service in the Philippines, and is now Major of the reserves and Governor of one of the provinces. Brother Brooks was a remarkable man, physically, intellectually and spiritually. He was a Methodist preacher for sixty-five years and was known and loved by many thousands in Texas. He was presiding elder of the Austin District and of two other districts in the Texas Conference. Brother Brooks preceded his wife to the glory land by more than two years, having departed this life in Elgin, Texas, August 3, 1916. I was their pastor for four years, and officiated in the ceremony of their golden wedding, which took place in Elgin, October 14, 1907. Sister Brooks was the wife of a Methodist preacher for about fifty-nine years, and was indeed a model wife for a preacher, humble, faithful, full of faith and peace and joy. Brother Brooks used to proudly call her the junior preacher. She was a good woman, one of the very best that ever lived, tender, true, kind, patient, meek loving, Christ-like. The impress of her Christian character she has left upon the lives of her noble children. She is gone. Her earthly life is over. Her heavenly life is begun. She is with Brother Brooks in their heavenly home. She is living in a mansion. Jesus prepared it. She is happy. No more pain weakness, death, good-byes. There will be some more "howdies," but no "god-byes." We are traveling home to God in the way our parents trod. They are happy now and we soon their happiness shall see.

MRS. EMMA LOUISE BURKE.

Mrs. Emma Louise (nee Smith) Burke was born in Kentucky November 10, 1842, joined the Methodist Church in childhood, came with her parents to Missouri where in 1869 at Smith's Chapel, Saline County, she was married to J. D. Burke, who in later years entered the Methodist itenerancy.

She was the mother of six boys, three of whom preceded her to the Glory World. She lived through four wars, her son and grandson having served in the recent war. In 1881 she came with her husband and family to Texas, where her life was spent as the wife of a true Methodist preacher. She was in every sense a true Christian and was a graduate of Fayette College, Missouri. She was both a scholar and a student, especially of the Holy Scriptures. She knew God's word and she knew Him whom to know aright is to know life eternal. She was a real teacher of the way of the Lord on the circuit or in the home or on her bed of affliction, where she lingered and sufferred for more than six years until on September 19, at the home of her son, A. L. Burke, Burke, Texas, her heavenly Father said, "It is enough; come up higher." Thus ended the life of one whose usefulness, patience and endurance can never be known by any save those who were with her in her last days. But now they are all over and some day we will meet her where sorrow, sickness, pain or death can never come.

LOLA LOVIS CUMMINGS.

Lola Lovis Cummings (nee Cadenhead), wife of Rev. C. T. Cummings of this Conference, was born in DeBerry, Texas, October 20, 1877, and died at Hughes Springs, December 5 1918. She had nursed two of her daughters through the dread influenza, then went to bed with a severe attack herself, and after five days of illness, growing worse each day, she passed peacefully away to the with our Lord in the home where "the inhabitant shall not say I am sick." At the age of sixteen years, while a student in Alexander Institute, at Kilgore, Texas, under the ministry of Rev. J. M. Smith, she was converted, and in her conversion there was the dedication of life and all to Him who had wrought the wondrous change in her life. August 8, 1894, she was married to Rev. C. T. Cummings, a member of the East Texas Conference. Five children were born to them, the only son, James B., passing away when only sixteen months old; the four daughters are left to mourn the loss of as devoted a mother as ever blessed a family of children.

In the years of service she kept her face toward the light, and carried a sunny smile that was helpful to all with whom she was associated. No mother ever had greater concern for the welfare of her children, nor guarded more carefully their interests. "She looketh well to the ways of her household and eateth not the bread of idleness. Her children arise up and call her blessed, her husband also, and he praiseth her." "Give her of the fruit of her hand, and let her own work praise her in the gates." While by nature she was a woman of firmness and decided convictions, she was free from every particle of austerity and harshness and possessed, in an unusual degree, the finest elements of social fellowship.

To her husband, who was, in her estimation, a very king, she gave the unbounded love of her heart; the fullest confidence of her soul, and the greatest concern for his welfare and happiness. Her children literally taxed her motherly devotion. To care for them and fit them for the best in life, were the highest tasks to which she felt herself divinely called, and to this worthy commission she gave herself without reserve.

Friends, made in early life and in the charges that they served when just starting into their life work, were friends to the last, and in

Sister Brooks was the wife of a Methodist preacher for about fifty-nine years, and was indeed a model wife for a preacher, humble, faithful, full of faith and peace and joy. Brother Brooks used to proudly call her the junior preacher. She was a good woman, one of the very best that ever lived, tender, true, kind, patient, meek loving, Christ-like. The impress of her Christian character she has left upon the lives of her noble children. She is gone. Her earthly life is over. Her heavenly life is begun. She is with Brother Brooks in their heavenly home. She is living in a mansion. Jesus prepared it. She is happy. No more pain weakness, death, good-byes. There will be some more "howdies," but no "god-byes." We are traveling home to God in the way our parents trod. They are happy now and we soon their happiness shall see.

MRS. EMMA LOUISE BURKE.

Mrs. Emma Louise (nee Smith) Burke was born in Kentucky November 10, 1842, joined the Methodist Church in childhood, came with her parents to Missouri where in 1869 at Smith's Chapel, Saline County, she was married to J. D. Burke, who in later years entered the Methodist itenerancy.

She was the mother of six boys, three of whom preceded her to the Glory World. She lived through four wars, her son and grandson having served in the recent war. In 1881 she came with her husband and family to Texas, where her life was spent as the wife of a true Methodist preacher. She was in every sense a true Christian and was a graduate of Fayette College, Missouri. She was both a scholar and a student, especially of the Holy Scriptures. She knew God's word and she knew Him whom to know aright is to know life eternal. She was a real teacher of the way of the Lord on the circuit or in the home or on her bed of affliction, where she lingered and sufferred for more than six years until on September 19, at the home of her son, A. L. Burke, Burke, Texas, her heavenly Father said, "It is enough; come up higher." Thus ended the life of one whose usefulness, patience and endurance can never be known by any save those who were with her in her last days. But now they are all over and some day we will meet her where sorrow, sickness, pain or death can never come.

LOLA LOVIS CUMMINGS.

Lola Lovis Cummings (nee Cadenhead), wife of Rev. C. T. Cummings of this Conference, was born in DeBerry, Texas, October 20, 1877, and died at Hughes Springs, December 5 1918. She had nursed two of her daughters through the dread influenza, then went to bed with a severe attack herself, and after five days of illness, growing worse each day, she passed peacefully away to the with our Lord in the home where "the inhabitant shall not say I am sick." At the age of sixteen years, while a student in Alexander Institute, at Kilgore, Texas, under the ministry of Rev. J. M. Smith, she was converted, and in her conversion there was the dedication of life and all to Him who had wrought the wondrous change in her life. August 8, 1894, she was married to Rev. C. T. Cummings, a member of the East Texas Conference. Five children were born to them, the only son, James B., passing away when only sixteen months old; the four daughters are left to mourn the loss of as devoted a mother as ever blessed a family of children.

In the years of service she kept her face toward the light, and carried a sunny smile that was helpful to all with whom she was associated. No mother ever had greater concern for the welfare of her children, nor guarded more carefully their interests. "She looketh well to the ways of her household and eateth not the bread of idleness. Her children arise up and call her blessed, her husband also, and he praiseth her." "Give her of the fruit of her hand, and let her own work praise her in the gates." While by nature she was a woman of firmness and decided convictions, she was free from every particle of austerity and harshness and possessed, in an unusual degree, the finest elements of social fellowship.

To her husband, who was, in her estimation, a very king, she gave the unbounded love of her heart; the fullest confidence of her soul, and the greatest concern for his welfare and happiness. Her children literally taxed her motherly devotion. To care for them and fit them for the best in life, were the highest tasks to which she felt herself divinely called, and to this worthy commission she gave herself without reserve.

Friends, made in early life and in the charges that they served when just starting into their life work, were friends to the last, and in each new charge where they labored, the circle widened, and in many a home of the people where they had lived and labored there were tears of genuine sorrow when it was told that "Sister Cummings was dead." The work of her husband was her work, and success to her was just as gratifying as to him; and she had a large share in the success that came to him in the work that was more than life to both of them. Her husband, in writing of her said, "We entered the ministry in the old East Texas Conference, December, 1895. I say 'we' and this is true, for her heart was as much in it as mine."

She was never happier than when she could do some service, speak some word, or do a kindness that would cheer or help some one else. The sick, and "shut-in," and the poor and friendless and neglected, were ones to whom her heart went out in peculiar tenderness. Of her it might be said as was said of her Lord whom she loved with passionate devotion, she "went about doing good."

Her work is done, and well done. The race is run, and successfully run! Her crown is won, and won amid the shouts of the great company of friends and loved ones who were waiting to welcome her to "The Beautiful Home" over there; "And behold, she is alive forevermore."

"Thou art gone to grave; but we will not deplore thee,
Though sorrows and death encompass the tomb;
Thy Savior has passed through its portals before thee,
And the lamp of His love is the guide through the gloom."

Dear friend, devoted mother, faithful Christian, good bye; we'll meet again.

O. T. HOTCHKISS.

The Conference Year
at
Southern Methodist University
Dallas, - Texas

The outlook was never brighter for religious education than now appears at this headquarters of our Church for the region west of the Mississippi.

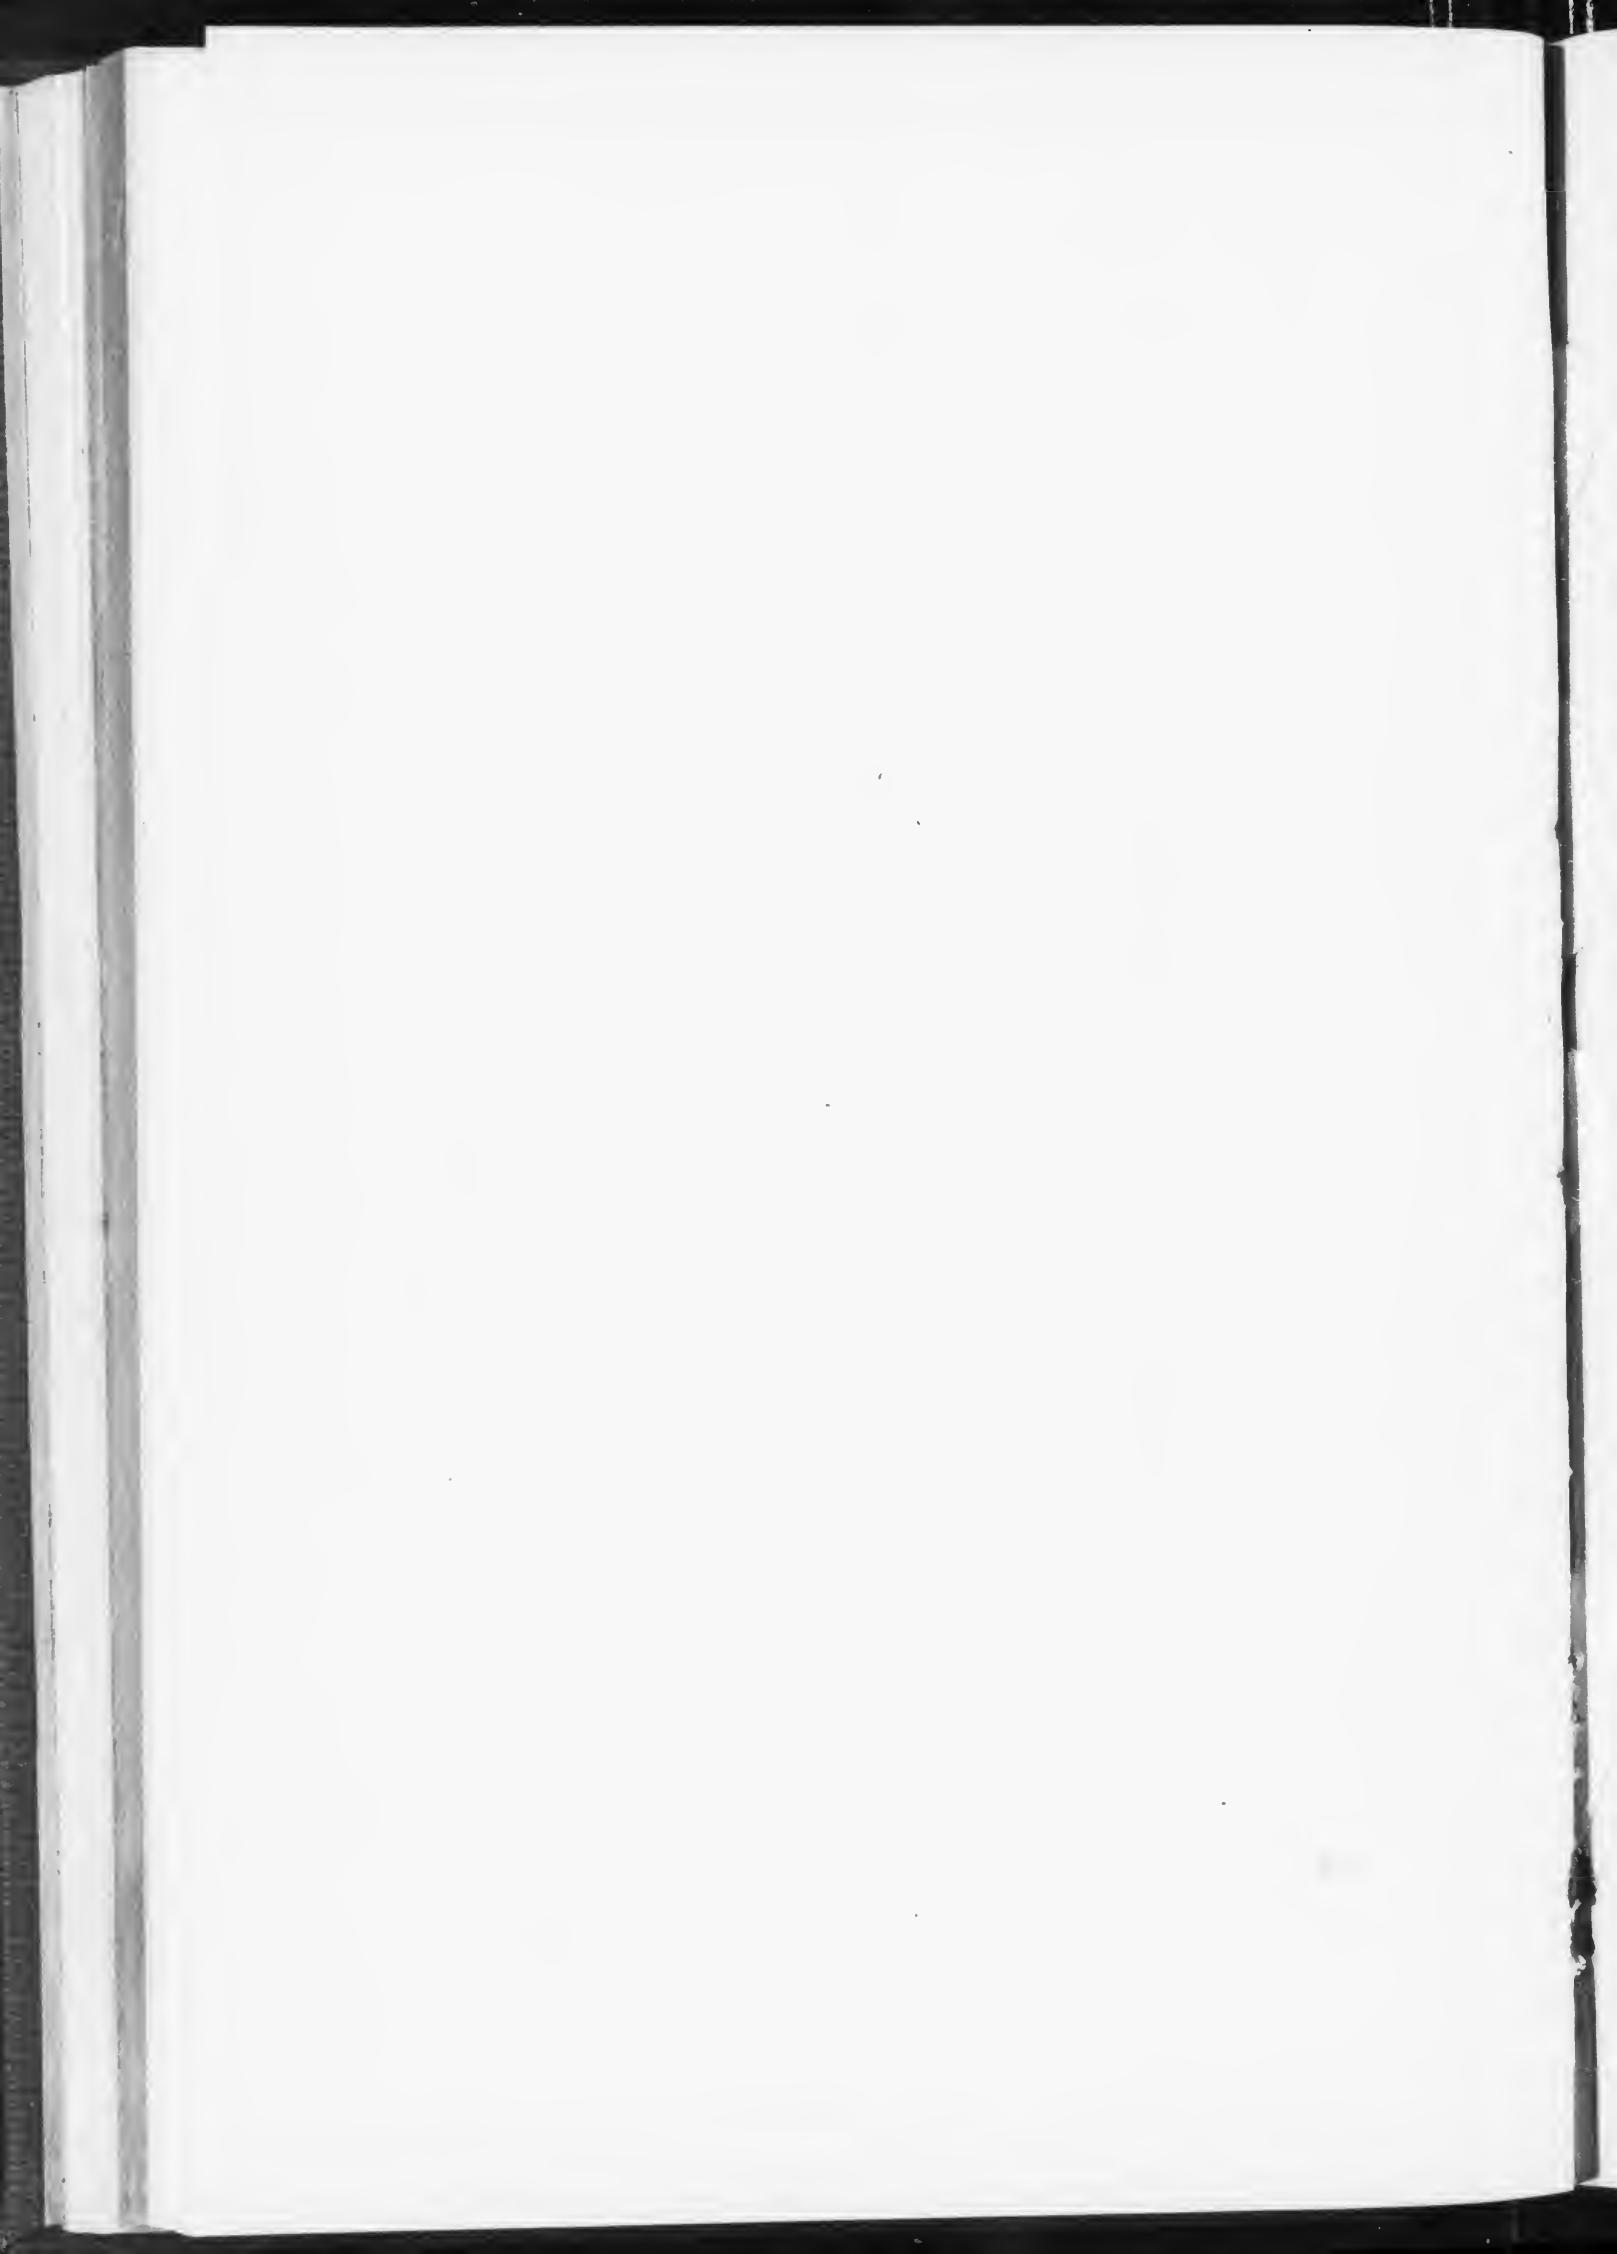

Most conclusively has the demand justified the establishment of the institution. 856 individual students have matriculated for the fall term, fully half as many being turned away from the dormitories as were accepted. It is significant that more students are now enrolled at S. M. U. than have ever been enrolled in any institution of like grade and age in the history of the Nation. Without any advertising, soliciting, or other effort, easily 3,500 students would be at S. M. U. with the facilities provided.

Of especial interest to our preachers is the programme of the School of Theology, items of which might be mentioned as follows:

Regular Session of the School of Theology.
Summer Session of the School of Theology.
Preacher's Summer Assembly.
Western Training School for Sunday School Workers.
The Correspondence School.

Dormitory reservations for next year are already being made, and students interested in work for the other terms of the current year should write immediately for information concerning dates of enrollment, courses of study, catalogue, etc., to

SOUTHWESTERN UNIVERSITY

Georgetown, Texas.

Co-educational, Departments of Fine Arts, Pedagogy, Home Economics, Commercial Subjects.

Matriculation for the Winter Term begins January 2, 1919. Rooms in the dormitories may be reserved by telephone or telegraph. Schedule of classes and other information furnished on request.

Southwestern is the ideal place for the college course of any young man or woman. It is located in a beautiful old college town just thirty miles from the State Capital and within easy reach of all Texas. The dormitories are modern and complete. The faculty is one of the strongest and best in the South, the courses of study vigorous and well planned. The student body is loyal and enthusiastic, student life is democratic.

Students pursuing required courses may obtain State Teacher's certificates. Every opportunity and encouragement offered students who find it necessary to work their way through school.

A postal card will bring descriptive literature.
